Natalie Cha is an Associate at Conrad | Metlitzky | Kane. Her practice includes complex civil litigation, internal investigations, and white collar criminal defense.

Natalie joins Conrad | Metlitzky | Kane after serving as a law clerk for Judge Gabriel P. Sanchez of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Prior to that Natalie was a law clerk in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. Natalie began her legal career as a litigation associate at Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, where she represented Fortune 100 companies in federal court and before the Federal Trade Commission.

Natalie earned her J.D. from Columbia Law School, where she was a James Kent Scholar and a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar. She was a member of the Immigrants' Rights Clinic and was the managing editor of the Columbia Human Rights Law Review. Natalie graduated magna cum laude from the University of California, Berkeley, where she majored in Political Science. Prior to law school, Natalie was a Fellow in the California State Senate. When she's not working, Natalie enjoys making ceramics, watching musicals, and traveling by train.
